

F&C honored as Company of the Year by Mozel Sanders Foundation

November 15, 2013

The Mozel Sanders Foundation, a charitable organization that serves families in need, honored Flaherty & Collins Properties last week as “Company of the Year” for work and support of the foundation’s mission in 2013.

Flaherty & Collins President Jerry Collins, along with Vice President of Management, Jill Herron, accepted the award at the annual banquet. “We are humbled in receiving this award and proud to support the wonderful work of the Mozel Sanders Foundation.”

The Mozel Sanders Foundation, a 501(c) 3 organization, was inspired by the late Rev. Dr. Mozel Sanders.

In 2012, the foundation served more than 40,000 hot meals to families in need on Thanksgiving Day, in addition to 400,000 pounds of staple goods and groceries. During the Annual Thanksgiving Day campaign, Mozel Sanders solicits help from roughly 3,000 volunteers and 45 satellite sites, which make the mission of providing food and goods to families in need possible.

Volunteers help by preparing, serving and delivering meals to families in need on Thanksgiving Day – the majority of which are children.

In an effort to support this year’s campaign, all Flaherty & Collins Properties, including our corporate office, will be collecting cans of food between now and Tuesday, November 26 to support the foundation’s mission.
