

DAVID HIGH, CAM

Director, Training & Quality Control
9 Years of Experience

dhigh@flco.com

“At Flaherty & Collins Properties, we understand the importance of training and supporting all of the great employees that are a part of this company. We want to ensure all employees have all the tools and resources they need to be successful in their role, and property goals are being met.”

RESPONSIBILITIES

David oversees the onboarding and onsite training for all new leasing consultants, assistant property managers and property managers within the portfolio. David assures all new hires are taught Flaherty & Collins policies, procedures, best practices and how to provide the best customer service to our residents and prospects. He also conducts site visits, ongoing education seminars and provides support to communities with marketing and strategy planning to increase occupancy, revenue, and resident satisfaction.

EDUCATION

Avon High School – Avon, Indiana

IUPUI – Indianapolis, Indiana

ACCREDITATIONS

Certified Apartment Manager (CAM)

IAA 2020 Chairperson – Professional Development

IAA 2021 Chairperson – Professional Development

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

David has 9 years’ experience in real estate and property management. Prior to joining Flaherty & Collins, David was a real estate agent in the greater Indianapolis area.

Carpenter Realtors (Brownsburg, IN)

Real Estate Agent

PERSONAL

David lives Downtown Indianapolis with his beagle, Pilot. He enjoys traveling, music, volunteering, and loves spending time with his niece, two nephews, and family.