

RICK LAPENTA

Pre-Construction Manager
21 Years of Experience

rlapenta@flco.com

“Pre-Construction represents the gap between a concept and reality. My job is to help close that gap and work to make the vision match the outcome.”

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The first 15 years of Rick’s career was as an electrician, working on job sites daily. After entering the office side of the business, I quickly realized that the knowledge I gained in the field was extremely valuable and has allowed me to grow professionally.
