

SARAH DASSYLVA

Vice President, Property Management
11 Years of Experience

sdassylva@flco.com

“Being in this role gives me the opportunity to become an influencer and leader for the company, my team, and owners. To be able to inspire and motivate everyone in a variety of aspects of the company that I over oversee and am a part of. I’m only as successful as those I lead.”

RESPONSIBILITIES

As the Vice President of Property Management, it is Sarah’s responsibility to provide oversight of the day-to-day activities for the portfolio, including property operation, training, technical services, and compliance. Sarah also ensures that established financial Performance targets are achieved or exceeded, and works collaboratively to create value, growth, sustainability, and alignment across the Flaherty & Collins Properties portfolio.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Wright State University

ACCREDITATIONS

CAM Certification

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Sarah began working for Flaherty & Collins Properties immediately after graduating from college. She has served in a variety of roles, in all aspects of Property Management.

Flaherty & Collins Properties (Indianapolis, IN)

Leasing Agent

Assistant Property Manager

Property Manager

Regional Property Manager

PERSONAL

Sarah and her husband are parents to three girls. She loves to be outside, take vacations, and spend time with her family.